

DesignInspirations

Notes and News from Kristina Wolf Design

Featuring...Kristina Wolf Design!

We are excited to announce that Kristina Wolf Design will soon be published in "Interiors Bay Area: Leading Designs Reveal Their Most Brilliant Spaces". In this great new book by Panache Partners, showcasing world-class interior design and custom home-building/design professionals, the homes of Kristina Wolf Design clients, Clem and Francoise B. and Susan C. (see Client Spotlight below), will be featured and seen by interior design aficionados worldwide! As you may have seen in our press release, Clem is the president of Hotwire.com. Kristina Wolf Designs cannot wait to show you our designs, so look for the upcoming book in December.

We are also honored and excited to be featured in the upcoming Spring 2012 Luxury Home Quarterly edition. Stay tuned, as we will highlight some recent Kristina Wolf Design projects that have yet to be photographed or published.

LUXURY
HOME
quarterly

SEPTEMBER 2011

In a house remodel project, the client's bathroom was completed first and I received this email shortly thereafter:

"FYI my wife is sitting in her new bathroom drinking wine and won't come out. I've been forced to bring a poof to the threshold of the bathroom door so I can chat (and drink) with her. Looks FAB."

– Stephen B. Moraga, CA

Our Latest Inspirations

As we all know by now the economy is in a state of "flux" but in the design world this translates into fabulous deals. While some vendors are cutting back on their inventory, others are slashing prices in hopes of attracting new business. Kristina Wolf Design has been out and about hunting up great deals for all of our clients. Last month at a huge tradeshow in Las Vegas, we saw some of our favorite vendors and spoke to them about bringing their pieces into our current projects in a fun and frugal way!

Four Hands, gorgeous furniture and accessories ranging from the exotic to the more traditional

Jaipur Rugs, a longtime favorite of Kristina Wolf Design, with contemporary and transitional to lush traditional rugs for every interior style

Loloi Rugs, honored with the ARTS Award for "Best Rug Manufacturer of the Year" in both 2010 and 2011

Lazy Susan, with a robust collection of home accessories with cool style, such as boiled wool felt river stone cushions

Global Views, with its wide array of decorative accessories, accent tables, large furniture items, rugs, mirrors, and lighting

We also spent time discovering some new "favorites" from artists whose work will definitely be making its way into our upcoming designs. One artist is James De Wulf of Santa Monica who creates amazing furniture and lighting using concrete and iron products. We especially liked his "Steel Fan" and a concrete table featuring the periodic chart. And Shiner International gives new meaning to "rock-a-bye baby" with rocking beds – for adults!

kristina wolf design
INTERIOR SOLUTIONS

510.848.8773

www.kristinawolfdesign.com

CONTINUED NEXT PAGE

DesignInspirations

Notes and News from Kristina Wolf Design

Client Spotlight: Jack London Square Loft

When Susan C., a pilot for Southwest Airlines, picked out her contemporary Jack London Square loft, she turned to Kristina Wolf Design to make it uniquely "hers". She was so much fun to work with and we are thrilled with the results.

Here is Susan's take on working with us.

"I would like to highly recommend Kristina Wolf Design to anybody looking for a great designer. When I moved into my loft in Jack London Square, I was excited about my beautiful new space but was basically stuck in decision-making hell. I needed help!

When I met Kristina I knew right away that we would have a great working relationship. I was comfortable with her immediately as she is friendly, outgoing and funny which I found refreshing with the many stresses that come with a move. Kristina has been a joy to work with. She listens and she doesn't waste time. She gets in and gets it done, and is the utmost professional.

The bottom line is Kristina is a top-notch designer. My home is beautiful, modern and edgy, and that is exactly what I asked for. I couldn't be happier!"

Travel Inspirations!

After so many great ideas from our recent visit to Las Vegas for the interior design show, next up will be Kristina Wolf's Southeast Asia adventure in December and January, surely to inspire a whole host of new designs for future projects!

Check Out Our Blog! »

Be sure to sign up to receive automatic notifications. Just click on "Entries (feeds)" on the right sidebar!

SEPTEMBER 2011

In a house remodel project, the client's bathroom was completed first and I received this email shortly thereafter:

"FYI my wife is sitting in her new bathroom drinking wine and won't come out. I've been forced to bring a poof to the threshold of the bathroom door so I can chat (and drink) with her. Looks FAB."

– Stephen B. Moraga, CA

kristina wolf design
INTERIOR SOLUTIONS

510.848.8773

www.kristinawolfdesign.com